

Friday 26 April 2024

14.15-15.45 - Parallel Session 4

	Grand Ballroom	Marie-Louise Suite I	Marie-Louise Suite II
	Innovations in prevention, prediction and detection + Interactive Session	Falls Management in Mediterranean Countries: Spain, Italy, Greece, Turkey and	Implementation of Falls Interventions
Moderator	Jesper Ryg and Maria Bonnici	Mark Anthony Vassallo and Chris Todd	Lotta Seppala and Ellen Vlaeyen
14.15-14.30	137-A quasi-experimental study to evaluate a new initiative infrared bed exit sensor with voice prompt messages (Luna Cat) to detect patients' fall risks when exiting their beds without assistance to prevent inpatient falling in one private Hong Kong hospital. Fok See Kee	Spain - Alvaro Casas Herrero	123-Fall rate 12 months after presentation to the Emergency Department - the SeFalled study. Tania Zieschang
14.30-14.45	163-A novel multistep approach to standardize the reported risk factors for in-hospital falls: a proof-of-concept study. Fabio La Porta	Malta - Simon Cilia and Anabel Cortis	157-Implementation of the StandingTall program to prevent falls in older people: a process evaluation. Kim Delbaere
14.45-15.00	168-Characteristics of landings, rotations, and impacts of real-world falls captured by wearable sensors in older persons. Luca Palmerini	Greece - Vasiliki Sakellari	162-Evidence-based fall prevention programmes: Are adoption facilitators acting as barriers to spread? Jodi P Ventre
15.00-15.15	Unlocking Scenarios: An Interactive Peek into in-Patient Falls	Turkey - Meltem Koca	169-Exercise interventions addressing falls efficacy in community-dwelling older adults: A scoping review. Shawn Leng-Hsien Soh
15.15-15.30		Italy - Erika Govoni	166-Optimizing and implementing a community-based group fall prevention program: a mixed methods study. Maaïke Van Gameren
15.30-15.45		Discussion	179-Effectiveness of dance interventions for falls prevention in older adults: a systematic review and meta-analysis. Kimberly Lazo Green